

Table of Contents

Foreword:	xi
Esi Sutherland-Addy
Introduction:	1
Akwasi Kwarteng Amoako-Gyampah, Bea Lundt and Edmond Akwasi Agyeman
Section 1: History
Chapter 1: Castle Schools on the Gold Coast: door-openers for the expansion of school education in Ghana.	21
Christel Adick
Chapter 2: Neither Missionary, nor Colonial: The Fante Constitution 1871 and its vision of a national education system in 19th Century Gold Coast	55
Christel Adick
Chapter 3: The Trend of Mission Education in Ghana.....	99
Peter Boakye
Chapter 4: Missions and British Colonial Education for Females in the Gold Coast	119
Justina Akansor
Chapter 5: The Creation of a New School Culture? History and Development of the Achimota School in Ghana	143
Bea Lundt
Chapter 6: Technical Education in The Gold Coast/ Ghana from The Late 19th Century To 1966.....	177
Akwasi K. Amoako-Gyampah & Ebenezer Mintab Danquah
Chapter 7: Redefining Indigenous Forms of Education: The Modelling of Technical/Vocational, Trade and Agricultural Schools on Indigenous Knowledge in Colonial Asante.....	201
Samuel Adu-Gyamfi & Helena Osei-Egyir
Chapter 8: Independence Is Here, What Next for Language! A Common Ghanaian Language or National Unity? (1954 -1966).....	219
Gertrude Nkrumah

Section 2: Subjects in School Teaching

Chapter 9: A review of teacher continuing professional development (CPD) practices and policy frameworks in Ghana: Towards the implementation of a coherent policy249

Ellen Abakab

Chapter 10: Re-introducing history into the Ghanaian Basic School Curriculum: A Roadmap and Concerns from Classroom Practitioners277

Anitha O. Adu Boaben & Prince Esiam

Chapter 11: Geography in Ghana, teaching, policy and curricular transformation through time307

Esther Yeboah Danso-Wiredu & Daniel Kofi Osae

Chapter 12: The Ghanaian Art Legacy: Education, Practice and Developments331

Samuel Nortey

Chapter 13: From proselytization to democratization: Tracing the footprints of Religion in Ghanaian Basic School Curriculum.....361

Richardson Addai Munumkum

Chapter 14: Female Education and Domesticity in the Gold Coast and Ghana, 1920-1966.....381

Juliet Tivaah Adu Boaben

Section 3: Issues in Tertiary Education

Chapter 15: Promoting Critical Pedagogy Through Dialogue: The Case of a Ghanaian University411

Joan Nkansaa Nkansah

Chapter 16: Expatriate Academics and the Development of University Education in Ghana.....439

Edmond Akwasi Agyeman

Chapter 17: Legal Education Policy in Ghana: New Wine in Old Wineskins?.....467

T Gabriel Botchway, Zowornu Worlanyo & David Asumda